EMPOWERING WOMEN THROUGH TOURISM

Fatima, Nomadic berber woman, Morocco

“Before Covid19, hosting Intrepid travelers on the Nomad expeditions was helping me continue my traditional lifestyle while raising eight kids on my own”

Leonarda, Chichubamba in Cusco's Sacred Valley, host and lead coordinator

“We really appreciate all the travellers Intrepid has sent us in the past, it provided important support for our families. The pandemic is really upsetting and we hope that tourism will remember us and support us again in the future.”

Hend, Deputy Operations Manager, Egypt

"The impact of Covid-19 was really big on my dreams, as I considered the position of Deputy Operations Manager to be the first step in a big challenge I was ready to take on."

Nuray, cook, Turkey

“I cannot wait to host people again and be able to practice my English speaking skills with travelers cooking with me.”

THANK YOU
